NextWave Build (“NextWave”, “we”, “us” or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to handling personal information responsibly.

This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect through nextwavebuild.com, how we use it, and the choices available to you.

1. Information We Collect

When you use our website or submit a form, we may collect information such as:

- Name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Country
- Programme or area of interest
- Information you voluntarily provide through forms or enquiries
- Technical information such as IP address, browser type, device information and website activity

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use your information to:

- Respond to enquiries and requests
- Register and manage expressions of interest
- Provide information about NextWave programmes and services
- Communicate with prospective learners, affiliates and partners
- Send programme updates, newsletters and marketing communications where permitted
- Improve our website, programmes and communications
- Maintain security and prevent misuse
- Comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements

3. Marketing Communications

Where you have agreed to receive marketing communications, we may send you emails about NextWave programmes, news, updates and offers.

You can unsubscribe from marketing emails at any time by using the unsubscribe link included in our emails or by contacting us.

4. Service Providers

We may use trusted third-party service providers to operate our website and communications, including providers of hosting, cloud infrastructure, analytics, forms, email delivery and marketing technology.

This may include Customer.io and other technology providers that process personal information on our behalf for these purposes.

We only share information where reasonably necessary to provide these services or operate our business.

5. International Data Processing

Some of our service providers may process or store information in countries outside the United Arab Emirates.

Where applicable, we take reasonable steps to ensure personal information is handled appropriately and in accordance with applicable data protection requirements.

6. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, including operational, legal and compliance requirements.

7. Data Security

We use reasonable technical and organisational measures designed to protect personal information against unauthorised access, disclosure, loss, alteration or misuse.

8. Your Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal information, or request that we stop or restrict certain processing.

You may also withdraw consent where processing is based on your consent.

9. Cookies and Similar Technologies

Our website may use cookies or similar technologies required for website functionality, analytics and performance.

We may update our use of these technologies as the website develops.

10. Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites or services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those third parties.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The latest version will always be published on this page with the updated date.
